

Developing a Deeper Relationship with Your Archetypes

Your Sacred Wealth Archetypes are your Wealth Council. They are your guides, feedback team, your coaches, your internal mastermind group.

Once you learn how to listen skillfully, they will share with you everything you need to know about how to live on purpose and create wealth in a way that is totally aligned with your unique Sacred Wealth Code. Soon, you will embody their energies so seamlessly that you'll hardly need to think about it.

Below are some simple and powerful ways you can connect with your Archetypes on a daily basis.

- 1 Reading their descriptions daily, working with the "Tapping In" questions at the end of each description, and meditating on the archetypal energies. Even if you only spend a few minutes each day doing this, you will begin to notice a shift almost immediately.

- 2 As you sit each day with your Archetypes, ask for them to show themselves to you in your daily life.

- 3 Ask to see where their energies are already present in your work, your passion, and your purpose.

- 4 More, ask that all-important question we've been working with since the beginning of our work together, "What is one inspired action I can take today?"

- 5 Ask your Archetypes for inspired actions to perform, and then execute those actions.

- 6 When you do this, you will not only begin to relate more strongly to your Archetypes, you will begin to trust them, and see how what they offer is directly connected to your wealth and prosperity.

Once you get comfortable with your Archetypes, you can also ask them for specific help and advice.

- You can tap into their energy for information about how to proceed with a specific event, a certain part of your business, or anything at all that you're creating.
- You can also ask for information about which of your high-value gifts would be most useful to bring to this project.
- Listen to what your Archetypes and your soul have to tell you, and then take whatever inspired actions are revealed.
- Don't hold back! Tap into these energies. Invite them into your life. Listen to what they have to say with your whole body, mind, and heart. Then, take inspired action and watch the opportunities follow.
